

GLOBAL SQUAD - ORIGIN

Brothers John, Jeremy, & Joe Alexander (pictured above) excelled on the basketball court at the International School of Beijing ('96-'01). Despite having college basketball potential, U.S. coaches were not making recruiting trips to Asia. All three brothers moved back to the U.S. to get recruited & chase their college basketball dreams.

This move paid off - both John & Jeremy got recruited to Washington College, located in Maryland. Meanwhile, Joe took a scholarship to attend West Virginia University & was eventually select 8th overall by the Milwaukee Bucks in the 2008 NBA Draft.

While the Alexander's basketball dreams were realized, most players living overseas do not have an opportunity to get recruited or the access to elite training & competition.

THIS IS WHY GLOBAL SQUAD WAS CREATED!!!
